

Todd J. Douglas

December 14, 1955 - December 28, 2023

Todd Jeffery Douglas, aka Tardy, Scruff Bucket, DaddyYo, and Room Dog, was born November 14, 1955, to the late Catherine Daisy and Willis Hasty Douglas. Todd was called home to be another one of God's Angels on December 28, 2023.

Todd grew up with eight siblings in Baltimore City. He graduated from Frederick Douglas High School. Todd enlisted in the military, where he served two tours in Germany. He also attended Baltimore City Community College, where he studied math.

Todd loved his family. He married the love of his life and had three daughters whom he cherished. Todd was known for his house parties and card games. He loved to play spades and dominos. Todd knew everyone in the city. He worked for the transportation authority, tied steel, and as a transportation driver, where he enjoyed meeting people and accumulated many friends. Todd loved church; he was an avid and loved member of The Pillar of Truth Christian Community Church under the Ministry of the late Pastor Barbara Robinson.

Todd relocated to Edenton, North Carolina, in 2017 to live with his daughter, Unique, and fiancé Terric. Todd fought for years to overcome his addiction and stay clean, which he managed to accomplish for over six years. He enjoyed creating memories with his daughters, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. However, his addiction haunted him like a bad reoccurring dream. He unfortunately relocated back to Baltimore in November 2023, where his addiction became his untimely demise.

Proceeding him in death, brothers and sister Melvin, Glen, Keith, Valerie, and Toran Douglas. Also, granddaughter Jabrea Douglas. Todd leaves to mourn: two brothers, Earl and Doral Douglas; sister, Brenda Richard (David); three daughters, Shanell Douglas, Unique Douglas (Terric), and Nechelle Johnson (Deroca); six grandchildren, Jawaun Douglas (Tiffany), Jaysha Ellis (Meka), Janiya Goldston, Taleya Jarrett, Joshua O'Neil, and Caleb O'Neil; six great-grandchildren, Aaliyah, Jayden, Khamar, Jordyn, Alaia, and Jayla; several nieces and nephews; and a host of other family and friends. Todd also leaves to mourn special friends, Sion, Mr. Derrick, Mr. Doug, and a long list of friends at the VA.

Todd was a mentor, exuded strength, and gave encouragement and wisdom to those he loved and those who loved him. He will truly be missed and loved as Heaven gains another Angel.
