

Tomeka Latrice Parker

October 27, 1976 - December 16, 2023

Tomeka Latrice Parker, 47, sadly passed away on Saturday, December 16, 2023, after a brief illness. She is preceded in death by her husband Damien Stokes, and children Treshawn Stokes, Zakia Parker as well as a brother Barry Clarke.

Tomeka was born October 27, 1976, in Richmond VA to Wilbert and Linda Parker. She attended Richmond Public Schools and graduated from John F. Kennedy High School. As a young child, she was baptized and attended Love Outreach church, where she participated in various children's groups. Tomeka later became a CNA and worked for the Virginia Home for many years. She developed a natural love for caregiving and went on to work various jobs as a private-duty nurse. At the time of her passing, she was employed at Chippenham Hospital as an Emergency Room receptionist. She loved working there and gaining a wealth of experience and knowledge that would carry over into her future endeavors. Tomeka was excited to have been accepted into the nursing degree program at ECPI and was set to begin her studies on January 4, 2024. She was a devoted mother, sister, friend, and an outstanding grandmother who threw the best birthday parties for her grandchildren.

Tomeka spent this last year spending time with her children and family making sure to make fond memories that will last forever in our hearts.

Tomeka is survived by her three sons and two daughters Traveon, Quatavia, Titiana, Damien Jr, and Dequane, and several grandchildren Traveon, Jr. Shatavia, Corey, Giovanni, Amara, and Kayon as well as her sisters Sheila (Johnathan) Shelton and Sharda Parker as well as a sister in love Chimere Stokes, and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends. She will be greatly missed for her beautiful kind spirit and unselfish love for others.

“ I remember some years ago, I would run into Tomeka on the GRTC bus sometimes and we would say hello to each other. I would compliment her on how nice she kept her children looking & she would smile and say thank you. I believe that the Lord needed another angle to add to his choir for the new year and Tomeka was called to do so. To Ricky Parker & Family, with Peace and Blessings, Ms. N. Bennett.

Im at a lost for words. I knew Tomeka through our daughters Quatavia and Anisa they were like sisters. Tomeka and I would see each other at school events and school activities. And just recently she was there for me when my daughter passed. She was a beautiful person Im thankful to have had the pleasure of knowing her she was so sweet. May God continue to give her children grand children and the entire family strength and comfort at this difficult time.*
