

Tonia D. Waters

August 10, 1965 - December 11, 2018

Tonia Denise Waters was born on August 10, 1965, to the late Preston Waters and Verna Mae Waters. She departed this life peacefully on Tuesday, December 11, 2018.

She was a life long member of Morning Star Baptist Church of Christ, where she continued to worship until she became ill. Prior to Tonia's illness her love for singing allowed her to sing on The Iona Rhodes Memorial Choir, The Sanctuary Choir, The Volunteer Choir and various choirs at Morning Star Baptist.

She received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School year of 1984. Then she attended Community College of Baltimore, where she received her associate degree. Tonia continued more education by completing her studies as a Nursing Assistant in 2000.

Her work experience was gained in several places, such as the United States Postal Service and Kmart. In between she had various jobs until her career in nursing lead her to Levindale, Private Duty and Maryland General Hospital. After leaving nursing her final career was McDonald's. No matter what job, she took pride in everything she did.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: son, Rian Carter Waters; three grandsons, Zihar Waters, Aiden Waters and Caleb Waters; God sisters, Joan Anderson and Peggy Copeland; life long friend, Rosetta Ford; and a host of cousins, family and friends.
