

Tony Thomas McCullum Sr.

November 7, 1920 - December 30, 2010

TONY THOMAS McCULLUM, husband of the late Hattie McCullum, son of the late Thomas and Addie McCullum, was born on November 7, 1920 in Lamar, South Carolina.

He received his formal education in the public schools of South Carolina. When Tony first arrived in Baltimore City, Maryland, he worked on the banana boats down at the Inner Harbor. From there, he worked at Western Maryland Grain Elevators, the Baltimore City Sanitation Department, C&T Transportation Company as a school bus driver.

Tony was a faithful member of New Life Evangelical Baptist Church under the leadership of the Pastor, Rev. Milton W. Williams. He was an usher, member of the Trustee Board and on the Adult Choir. He loved his church and singing his favorite hymns until his death.

Mr. Tony loved people. If you needed him, he was there for you.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Tony T. McCullum, Jr. and his fiancée, Brenda Riddick; two daughters, Eloise Cooper and Rita M. Solomon (Raymond); twenty-six grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
