

Tonya M. Maith

July 26, 1968 - January 30, 2024

TONYA MICHELLE MAITH, beloved daughter of the late Janice Maith and the late Rovell Little Sr., was born July 26, 1968, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on Tuesday, January 30, 2024.

Tonya graduated from Douglass Senior High School and attended Coppin State University while studying criminal justice.

She was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital and held numerous jobs throughout her lifetime. Tonya engaged in several activities throughout the years. She was a member of the Westside Marching Band; she loved sports, in particular, basketball, which she also played and enjoyed watching football. She adored her granddaughters, and treasured spending time with them. Among those things she also enjoyed dancing, laughing, and talking trash.

Tonya was kind, funny and loved by many. She lived her life like Frank Sinatra, HER WAY! Tonya was Tonya.

She leaves to mourn: her sons, Jahmal Dyer and Timothy Dunaway; her grandchildren, Cayleigh and Jaxyn Dyer; brothers, Stacey Maith, Rovell Little Jr.; sisters, Keontye Little, Lynette Carter, Donnette Wise; special aunt, Rhonda Thornton; special cousins, Katherine Cole, Jaqueline Maith, Joseph Fair and Omari Thornton; nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of relatives and friends. The family would like to extend special thanks to Ms. Beverly Ballard and the Dunaway and the Dyer family
