“ To Brian, Tiffany and Brandon. It's very hard for me to write this tribute but I must continue. Well, I have known each of your since your birth. Your mother and I have been friends since our high school days back in North Carolina and we remained great friends to this day! A few weeks ago, your mother and I was talking about her upcoming graduation from college for this upcoming November. She was so excited and was planning a trip to Vega to celebrate. Even though she did not walk across the graduation stage, she accomplish her goal and now she is receiving her diploma in Heaven.

Also, I want you all that your mother life was a blessing, her memory a treasure, she was loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure. With this say, your lives must go on because her death is not the end. It is an amazing transition into a new world called "Heaven". So Brian, Tiffany and Brandon, there is something about losing your mother that is permanent and inexpressable - a wound that will never quite heal but I do know that your mother loved you all dearly and her grandchildren. If you should need me I am here. Love Aunt Bernice and Family!
