

Torrey C. Leggett

November 2, 1987 - December 10, 2001

Torrey Courtlan Dion Leggett, affectionately known as T.C., was born November 2, 1987, to Malcolm and Angela Gibson Leggett in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on December 10, 2001. T.C. graduated from Sudbrook Middle School in June 2001, and was accepted and attended the Western School of Technology and Environment Science in Baltimore, MD. There he was enrolled in the Culinary Arts program. On any given day his mom and dad would come home to find cakes or cookies baked. He was billed as an independent, creative and adventurous young man who was willing to take on any and all new challenges. Seen as a reflection of his uncle Vincent's childhood years, T.C. loved to dabble and dabble with new things, but stuck with few. He tried baseball, basketball, karate, etc; however his passions were swimming, singing (even though he couldn't hold a note), shopping for the latest gear, checking out the newest movies, photography, steaming and eating crabs and just hanging out with family and friends. T.C. was known to be a leader when interacting with his peers. He would spend hours surfing the net and chatting with friends under the alias "Lilplaya4life2001". T.C. treasured the wonderful opportunity to meet and mingle with so many relatives from both his maternal and paternal families covering several generations. He looked forward to spending summers at his family reunions, where he created a whole new extended family. An extremely sociable person, T.C. easily made friends wherever he went. Whether through his colorful stories or contagious smile, T.C. possessed a charm that would brighten anyone's day; and his beautiful eyes were a gateway to his soul. Torrey will be truly missed by all that knew and loved him. Left to cherish his memory are his parents, Malcolm and Angela Gibson Leggett; grandparents, Angela Lofton and Charlie & Willie Mae Leggett; brother and sister-in-law, Erskine & Chenita Gibson; niece, Chelea Gibson, all of Baltimore, MD, one great-great uncle, Richard Smith, Brooklyn, NY; one great-great aunt, Arlene Tillery, Rich Square, N.C.; nine great aunts and uncles, Cattie Mae Simmons, Fayetteville, N.C., Mildred McRae, Oxon Hill, MD, Luther Smith, Halifax, N.C., Theodore and Gemera Smith, Janice Horton, Eleanor & James Brooks, Bernice Holland, all of Baltimore, MD; fourteen aunts and uncles, Henry & Mary Hillery, Michael Lofton, Willard & Pamela Braswell, Belinda Jennings, Alicia Melvin, all of Baltimore, MD, Terry & Dilcy McCoy, Colorado Springs, CO, Nellie Smith, Laurinburg, N.C., Patricia Wells, Maxton, N.C., Vincent & Aldena Leggett, Annapolis, MD and a host of loving cousins and friends.

“ Of all the hard things I ever thought I would have to do, I never thought, I could never of even imagined, having to do this. Torrey, I miss you so much, I can hardly stand it... and there are so many people, that loved you even more than I did, I can't even think about it, all the pain and hurt that they have to go through, before things start to get better, and brighter (and they will). But, I'll get through this, because of what you taught me about being strong, and holding my head up, even when I didn't feel like I could. Every time I close my eyes, I can remember all of the time we spent together. Especially the morning we were walking behind the gym, and I told you, "Torrey, you know, you are the little brother that I always wanted." You gave me that Torrey smile, and leaned over and kissed me on the cheek. Life without you, is going to be more than hard, but Torrey, I know that I will see you again, and we will make even more memories together. Thank you so much, for giving me a chance, to know you and love you, and thank you, for coming into my life and making it better than what it was. Know that I'll be loving you, and thinking about you, and talking about you with Erica and Joey, every second of every day. I miss you Torrey, stay the same, always. “ Torrey, you are truly missed by all who knew and loved you. To know you, was to love you. You will always have a special place in my heart and I will cherish the memories I have of you. Although you were becoming a young man, you were always my special "baby cousin" and that's how I will remember you. I will never forget your beautiful smile and your charm. Angie & Malcolm, know that I love you dearly and will do anything I can for you. I'm just a phone call away. There are so many people standing in the gap praying for us, and especially you two. There are prayers, even as I'm typing now, going up for peace in this storm and comfort for today and the days to come. Also take comfort knowing that TC's living wasn't in vain. He touched so many people's lives in the short time he was here, and that I'm grateful. Angie, you asked if I could sing a song for TC and I told you that I didnt think I could do it....just know that my heart sings out to him every day "for we'll understand it better by and by".
