

Trace D. Littlejohn

February 15, 1972 - October 1, 2014

TRACE DENISE LITTLEJOHN, daughter of the late Ophie and Shirley LittleJohn, was born on February 15, 1972 and departed this earthly life on October 1, 2014 after a courageous battle with a lengthy illness.

At an early age, Trace accepted the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as the Ambassador of her life. Trace, as she was affectionately called, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System where she graduated from Southwestern Senior High School. Before becoming unable to work, Trace earned a living working at the University of Maryland Hospital where she worked for many years.

Trace was the youngest of six children, and she had a unique relationship with each of her siblings. She made many friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Trace was always a true friend.

Trace leaves with warm, loving memories: her children, Lexus C. Davis and Keshaua Hutchins; four sisters, Okareta McConnell of Jacksonville, Florida, Connie Hurst of Homestead, Florida, Barbara and Twocrecia LittleJohn of Baltimore, Maryland; adopted sister, Chanell Zellous; brother-in-law, Dwight McConnell; aunts, Sara Gardner of Baltimore, Doris Arline of Charleston, South Carolina and Joann Robinson of Daytona Beach, Florida; uncles, Willie Gardner and Jake Arline; thirteen nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE

Our family circle has been broken again, a link gone from our chain. Although we've parted for a while, we know not when we shall meet Trace in a better land and never part again.

Sorrowfully submitted,

The Family

“ *Life is too short,
It's not enough,
but we must understand,
That if we live it in love and faith,
a road will be made,
For the day we pass away,
We can take it,
and wait at the end,
for those who once and always loved me,
I will meet.*

*Your beautiful eyes,
so big and round,
showed love,
showed laughter,
showed happiness,
showed sadness,
but we will remember you as the happy beautiful women you were,
The one who once cried for love,
The one who once laughed,
I love you my dear,
we will miss you,
but please wait,
we will meet once again,
In the kingdom of heaven,
where no pain we will feel.*

We love you Auntie Trace From your nephews (Darin & Martavius) we were young but we still remember

“ Trace our hearts are broken forever,
People tell us that in time the pieces will eventually come back together,
If this is true, though hard to believe now, there will always be a space,
The piece to which has your name on its place.
Tears have been falling now for so long, when we think of your beautiful face it all seems so wrong you had so much to look forward to and so much left to do But God needed somebody in heaven who is as special as you.
Nothing is the same now and we doubt it ever will be you have been released from pain and suffering, you have been set free.
Your story has touched people, all ages, near and afar on the night you were taken from us, in the sky was a lone twinkling star.
Was that you to tell us that you had reached home now?
And from life as we knew it, it was time for you to take your final bow.
We miss your voice, your infectious laugh and hearing you sing.
Fashion you loved and now you have new accessories a pair of Angel's wings.
The world has lost a wonderful girl, a true and amazing friend.
But maybe her goodness was needed to help and from heaven she needed to send.
Trace you are always around us, engulfing us with your love Giving us strength, keeping us close and watching over us from above.

You will be miss Love you Sis
Your Big Sis Connie
