

Tracey N. Bates

October 6, 1976 - May 1, 2014

Tracey Nakeya Bates was born on October 6, 1979 to the late Vernetta and Herbert Bates. She departed this life on May 1, 2014 at Gilchrist Hospice Care of a lengthy illness.

She was educated in the Catholic and public school system. Tracey attended Father Charles Hall during elementary and part of middle school. She then attended public school for the rest of Junior high and graduated from Edmondson Westside High. She worked many jobs and enjoyed multitasking, as we all know if she was bored with it or it wasn't challenging enough Tracey was on to the next one.

Tracey also known as "Bates" was very outspoken and bossy. Bates was a very strong and a True Fighter that enjoyed shopping, going out having a ball, and most of all talking on the phone with her Golden Girls all hours of the night and morning until she couldn't talk anymore.

Holidays were her favorite; Tracey was family oriented and she especially loved dressing the kids or just simply picking out their outfits. Everyone knew she loved playing the lottery and Atlantic City. Tracey believed if there's a way, with the exception of it's her way or the highway. Tracey was at peace with herself as well as her frenemies and believed and prayed to her heavenly father until he called her home.

As Tracey joins her parents in heaven she leaves to cherish her memories her only daughter Zairra Roberson, Stepson Lor Fry, a devoted friend Fredrick Morrison. Three Aunts, Karen, Paulette, and Jackie Parker, One Uncle Joey Parker. Five cousins, Orielle, Brandy, Danielle, Daquan, and Haywood. Best Friend Foxy, and Mere who was like a sister to her. As well as a host of other family, friends and loved ones.
