

Tracy K. Fields

June 7, 1965 - November 20, 2002

Tracy Kay Dean Fields, daughter of the late Mary Alice and Russell George Dean, Sr., was born on June 7, 1965 in Newport News, Virginia. She departed this life on November 20, 2002. She received her education at Columbus Elementary School and later went to Walbrook High School. She attended numerous churches throughout Baltimore City. Tracy was the baby of the family. As she grew up to be an adult, she still had her baby ways. She raised three girls and did very well. Her baby girl, Danny was a special baby and needed special care. What made it so unique is that her two girls Nabila and Tiarra understood and they helped out with Danny. Tracy was generous and well liked to everyone. She would give you her heart. Tracy was a very outgoing and ambitious young lady. Throughout Tracy's life, she has been into ballet dancing and modeling and also cosmetology. Tracy was into fashions as well, when it came to her appearance. Tracy did a good job in taking care of her three girls. Tracy had good intentions when it came to her girls. They were her first priority as a Mom. Tracy had also opened a child daycare center, just so she could be home with her daughter. So she wouldn't have to go outside the home to work. She was a great Mom. Tracy made numerous friends wherever she went and will be missed by her neighbors, friends and relatives. We know that Tracy was heaven sent by the things she did the life she lived and the way she gave of herself to everyone she met. During her short but full and memorable life she sure did make us happy. She leaves to mourn: her loving and devoted daughters, Tiarra Nicole Jackson, Nabila Kay Ajanah and Erika Dannell Davis; three brother, Russell Dean Jr. of Newport news, Virginia, Carlton W. Hockaday, Robert Dean of Baltimore, Maryland; five sisters, Janice Brown of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Debre Dean of Lumberton, North Carolina, Patricia Dean of Hagerstown, Maryland, Vernell Carroll and Frankie Rose of Baltimore, Maryland; Thurman Brown of Fayetteville, North Carolina; four sisters-in-law, Jean Hockaday, Sandra Dean and Kathy Dean of Baltimore, Maryland, Cherry Dean of Newport News, Virginia; three aunts, Jerline Alston, Graceline Alston of Newport News, Virginia and Ernestine Weatherford of Reidsville, North Carolina; one great aunt, Winfred Jones of Farmsville, Virginia; twenty-six nieces and nephews, many cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Tracy was my neighbor. we would exchange greetings as neighbors do. I enjoyed watching her interact with the little ones. I recently became aware of this service offered by the March funeral home and wanted to let the family know that Tracy and her girls are still in the thoughts of many.##imported-begin##Mary##imported-end##
