

Tracy Colleen Savoy

August 7, 1965 - May 24, 2016

Tracy Colleen Savoy, daughter of the late Leon Savoy and Evelyn E. Quickley-Savoy was born on August 7, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. She went home to be with her loving savior on May 24, 2016 after a lengthy illness.

Tracy received her education at the Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School majoring in forensic pathology. After high school, she entered into the United States Armed Forces. She also attended Catonsville Community College and majored in Mortuary Science.

Tracy accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. She was baptized at St. Ann's Catholic Church by Father Samuel T. Lupico, where she was a member for many years.

Tracy held several jobs until she became employed with the Baltimore City Transportation Department, where she rose from a laborer to office manager. She was a dedicated employee until her death.

Tracy loved shopping, going to the movies, going to concerts and eating (mostly sea food). She made numerous friends wherever she went and was always willing to lend a helping hand. To know her was to love her.

Tracy was preceded in death by two siblings, Reginald C. Quickley and Maria

Savoy.

Tracy leaves to mourn: the love of her life, Dwayne R. Parker, Sr.; two step-sons, Dwayne, Jr. and Dajaun Parker; one step-daughter, Montress Parker; three step-grandchildren and one step-great grandchild; two brothers, Leon Savoy, Jr. and Darrell Savoy; one sister, Anna Maria Cromwell; two sisters-in-law, Adriana and April Savoy; one brother-in-law, Dwight Felton; nieces and nephews, Michella, Michael, Darrell D., Darian, Darius, Tariko and Darrell L. “ My condolences and sorrow go out to the family. Tracy I miss you!!! I never thought that when you left work that day that you would never come back. Now I sit across the room and look at your desk and it's hard to think that I will never hear your voice again, never share a laugh again or never be able to watch you chow down on the shrimp that you loved to eat. But, I know that you are know longer suffering in pain and that your at peace. Love you girl!!!
