

Travis Garrett Jester

January 26, 1975 - February 12, 2021

Travis, often referred to as “Big Sexy”, Tralfaz, Unkie, or “the Nunc”, was the eighth child born to Charles Edward Jester, Sr. and Jessie Belle Henley Jester. He was born in Milner, Georgia. And, he was destined to be with us, because he was conceived while “Miss Jessie” was on birth control.

He attended Lamar County Comprehensive High School where he was known for crushing folks on the football field since his touch football days! After graduating high school, he completed coursework at then-Gordon Junior College and Strayer University.

He worked several years for Millard Refrigerating Company in Georgia before relocating to Virginia. He worked at various companies, including Carmike Movie Cinemas, Tuesday Morning, and Casual Male/Destination XL.

His style was impeccable and helped to dress stars like Bruce Bruce and Stevie Wonder. He preferred Tommy Hilfiger versus Calvin Klein underwear! He appreciated a good pair of socks! And, he was not too bourgeois to make a Slushie out of fresh fallen snow and Kool-aid! The loved country music, but was not ashamed of being a “closet rapper”, who loved Two Short, Scarface and the Ghetto Boys.

Travis had many interests and hobbies. He loved to read, play video games, and was a gifted candy maker. He had the best anime collection this side of the Mississippi! He was an avid comic book collector and wrote a few episodes of Naruto fanfiction.

He was an incredible person, who loved his family passionately and had a great sense of humor. He was kind and loving. He was quick to comfort and slow to anger. He was protective of the people he worked with and of his family. He was often considered the “go to” uncle for serious conversations and anecdotes.

He is survived by his loving parents, his adoring brothers - James (Eileen), Charles (Heather) and Jonathan (Lara), his devoted sisters - Benita, Ramona, Charolette, and Julie, a host of loving nieces and nephews, a great niece Amiyah and several great nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends. He lived his life understanding that he was deeply loved and appreciated.

I remember Travis from our High School years. Boy I tell you, Travis was one of a kind. He had such a big heart. A brain that could outsmart the world smartest person. I graduated with Travis. When I saw this post, I could not believe it. Wow what a big pill to swallow. He will always have a spot in my heart. May GOD be with the family through y'all lost. Gone but never forgotten.
