“ My deepest condolences to the family. Although we didn't grow as childhood friends...We became fast friends as soon as we met....We even start a nonprofit reentry program together..(Called R.O.O.T.S) we shared our story of recovery to any and every one who would listen. With the help of Richard Cheatum, Richard Sparrow, Randall Goodall and our First Lady Lynda Clarke. Our organization quickly grew and blossom into a family....Travis Mines who was our President at the time became a great leader and a great friend of mine's...He open a lot of people eyes to getting out of jails and prisons and staying out. He help a lot of people out. So in close I just want to say ...This one here really hurts but I can if questions Gods work..I love you my brother and you will be deeply missed. Until we see each other again fly high my brother and job well done.... Love Lionel Boogie Gliver

“ *To one of best men I have ever known. A true and real super hero.
Through his work in recovery he has gone into the fire and pulled people out never worrying about his personal danger. He could go and speak at city council or the city jail and be the same Travis.
Rest In Paradise.*

“ I want to extend my deepest condolences to the family during this difficult time. I had the privilege of working with Mr. Travis at RBHA. While there, I not only built a strong coworker relationship with him but also a father figure , mentor, and protector relationship. He was an incredible, trustworthy, and inspiring leader in so many ways. I will truly miss him, and my heart is filled with immense sadness. “Shima”. (Babygirl as you called me)

Prayers to the family during this sorrowful time. May you find comfort in cherishing the memories of Travis. I met Travis through work with RBHA. He was a passionate about the Richmond community, a gray teacher, a leader and always willing to learn. He left a mark wherever he went. Job well done my brother. Get your rest! I will truly miss you.

“ I worked with Travis at RBHA and I will always remember his unwavering positivity and willingness to help anyone who needed it. He couldn't get enough of helping others at work, so he started his own non-profit! He taught me so much about how to be real with people while respecting their humanity...I will never forget him.

No ..not you! I was online trying to see how to find you..because I still have a picture you as a baby holding a telephone that belonged to my late Mom. I have been through so much..and I wanted to reach out to you..to let you know how strong I have been...to ask about your family and to see how you were doing..and I sadly find that God has taken you home. I know he doesn't make mistakes..but I sure wish I would've spoken to you before he opened his arms for you. I will keep your family in my prayers and always cherish your picture that I still have of you..holding the telephone.
