

Tray Kashawn Dawkins

July 12, 2000 - April 16, 2019

Tray Kashawn Dawkins, departed his life on April 16, 2019 at the age of 18. He was born and raised in Montgomery County, Maryland to Vicki McRoy(Reid) and Donovan Dawkins, Sr.; who resides in Jamaica.

Tray attended Montgomery County Schools, which included: Summit Hill, Clopper Mill Elementary, Roberto W. Clemente Middle School, Northwest High School, and Montgomery College in Germantown, MD.

Football was his passion. Tray was on the junior and varsity football team at Northwest High School and ran track and field, throughout his school year from which he won ribbons and medals. He was known for clowning around, love sports and was very athletic. He was a very friendly person and made a friend wherever he went. He kept a "smile and a smirk" on his face, as his mom would call it. Tray, was always eager to lend a helping hand, to those in need. He was also a comedian. Tray enjoyed working at Giant food store in Germantown for several years.

Tray accepted Jesus Christ into his life as a teenager. He attended, United Kingdom Fellowship Church in Germantown, MD, which his late grandfather, Raymond McRoy started, and is still moving forward under the leadership of Pastor Marcella Brown and husband Johnny Brown. Oh, how he loved music, and was always sitting in the back of the church (to do his dance).

Tray leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Vicki McRoy (Reid); father, Donovan Dawkins, Sr.; step-father, Claude Reid; two sisters, Denitra and Brittney McRoy; four brothers, Donovan, Davonte, Davauni, Kashawn; one step-brother, Skyler Reid; two grandmothers, Judy McRoy and Naomi Hall; two grandfathers, Phillip Dawkins and the late Raymond McRoy, Jr; an adopted grandmother, Estella Mason; 7 aunts, Talashia McRoy, Claudine Ander, Tammica Wilson, Debbie and Dawnett Dawkins; Elishia and Yalonda McRoy; 3 uncles, Warren Dawkins, Rohan Anderson, Raymond McRoy, IV; 5 nieces; 2 nephews; three close friends, LaRay, Andre and Jasmine; a host of other loving relatives and many friends.
