

Trayon Darnell Burgess

April 2, 1990 - March 14, 2011

TRAYON DARNELL BURGESS, was called home to rest for eternity on Monday, March 14, 2011. Trayon was known to his family as “Booda” a name he was given as a child because of his chubbiness. Trayon was born on April 2, 1990 to Teresa Darlene Burgess of Baltimore, MD and Derrick Giliard of Brooklyn, NY. He attended school through the Baltimore County Public School System and was in the process of continuing his education at TECH Bridge Learning Center in Baltimore County.

Trayon had high ambitions on becoming active in the workforce and bettering himself as a young man and father. He focused on reaching goals he had set for himself in life. As a child he was quite and much to himself but soon to grow out of that. Trayon was outgoing and outspoken, loved by many.

He enjoyed things like dirt bike, cars and his PS3. Nothing was like family time with him, if it just was being around the way with his friends, at dinner over his mom’s house, or home with Colin and Shy. Wherever he went he was truly loved.

He leaves to cherish his memory his son; Colin Shiloh Burgess, mother Teresa Darlene Burgess, father; Derrick Giliard, brother; Charles H. Robenson III, three sisters; Latesha Robinson, Lanita Robinson, Faith Johnson, grandmother; Santor G. Hill, grandfather; Harold Gordon, aunt; Jackie

Burgess, uncle; Eric Burgess, two nieces; Zoey Robinson, Kimora LittleJohn, two nephews; Chrisean Dower, Chorey Daniels, the love of his life; Shykiesha Stewart and a host of relatives and friends.

“ We can never judge GOD's plans or decisions, we can only be thankful and appreciative for the time and memories HE allowed us to share. In saying that Boda, I am so glad that I was able to be a part of your life, change your diapers, and see the young man you grew up to become. I have the fondest memories of Bentalou with you and all the family, the house was always filled with so much laughter and love. I can so clearly remember the Boda and Semmera show in Santor's kitchen every night, trying out my so called barbering skills on you and Chuckie, no matter what it looked like you guys just smiled. I remember having you, Courtnye, Brandon, and Cub spend the weekend with me, of course you were the ring leader of all the things you guys got into, including crashing the computer for visting some unmetionable websites. There was never a dull moment when you were around and you kept a smile on everyones face and laughter in the air.

I pray that you find peace and understanding, and know you were loved and will never be forgotten. I love you Boda, I miss you and your hugs, you will always be in my heart. Rest in eternal Peace.
