

Trella Jackson

December 5, 1959 - May 2, 2010

TRELLA WALLACE-JACKSON, the daughter of Trella M. and the late Herbert L. Wallace Sr., was born on December 5, 1959. She was called home to be with her Father on Sunday, May 2, 2010.

Trella (affectionately called Buttons) was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. She graduated from Eastern High School in 1978. Trella worked as a Security Guard for the Federal Government. Some of her duty stations were SSA (Social Security), the Custom House and the Federal Building.

Trella was blessed with two wonderful husbands, Thomas Sterette and Nathaniel Jackson, whom preceded her in death.

Trella was a very strong woman who did not let her illness stop her from doing the things she loved, especially BINGO. Trella was very outgoing and fun to be with. She showered much love on her nieces and nephews, especially Makayla, her great niece. She was the grandmother Makayla did not have. Trella lived her life to the fullest and will be missed by all.

Trella leaves to mourn: mother, Trella Wallace; two sisters, Rita Bacote and Phyllis Wallace; four brothers, Clark Howell (Mary), Herbert L. Wallace Jr., Phillip Wallace and Bruce Wallace (Linda); two sisters-in-law, mother-in-law,

Margaret; goddaughter, kiss, two aunts and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.

“ Please accept my condolence for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible by the only true God Jehovah and the one whom he sent forth Jesus Christ.(John 17:3 and John 3:16)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Trella Jackson. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Peace and Blessings to Rita Bacote and family on the loss of your dear loved one. May God's grace embrace you all and comfort you in your hour of bereavement and always. Know, that there is no sorrow on Earth, that Heaven can not heal. May serenity abide in your hearts as you press onward after your family circle has been broken. Know that others care and share your sorrow!###imported-begin##Lizzie##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acs24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).###imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
