

Trella Mae Wallace

March 9, 1927 - March 31, 2019

Trella Mae Wallace was born on March 9, 1927 to the late John and Evelyn McKnight. On Sunday morning, March 31, 2019 in comfort and in peace she breathed her last breath on this earth and began her new life with the Lord. Trella's birth was in Lynchburg, SC but she was raised in Baltimore, MD. She attended Old Douglass high school on Baker street and graduated in 1946. The same year she married Herbert Lawrence Wallace.

God granted Trella with nine children, five girls "Joyce, Rita, Rona, Trella and Phyllis" and four boys "Clark, Herbert, Phillip and Bruce". Daughter, Joyce, Rona Trella and Phyllis and grandchildren Ronald and Brea preceded Trella in death.

Ms. Wallace, as she was known to everyone, was a fashion Icon. When you saw Ms. Wallace she was dressed to kill. Everything matched and coordinated. Mon had hats in every color and style. She also dressed her kids. You should have seen some of of children's Easter outfits.

Trella lived for her children. The rock they needed. She instilled in them a sense of independence and pride in one's self; not to depend on other to make your life complete. She taught her children about Love, God and Family. She was the glue that held us together, the peace we needed when trouble came and the comfort from the hurts of the world.

Trella leaves to mourn: her daughter, Rita; four sons, Clark, Herbert, Phillip and Bruce; two daughter-in-law, Linda and Mary; twelve grandchildren, Warren, Benjamin, Randall, Banita, Dwayne, La Var, Shakira, Destiny, Towanda, Keisha, Bruce Jr., and Latosha; twenty-three great-grandchildren, Brandon, Bryon, Brain, Latoya, Dimetric, Amira, Nehemiah, Lyanna, Randy Jr, Ryan Jarrell Shranda, Jalen, Jaxon, Mekhi, Jaden, DJ, Mekhi, Temeria, Lil Ronnie, Mykayla, Breadon and Bradley; six great-grandchildren, Chase Autumn, Desmond, Randy III, King and Wesley; two sister, Delphine and Barbara and a host of relatives and friends.
