Tremayne Cox, daughter of the late Otis G. Cox, Sr. and Geraldine G. Cox, was born on September 22, 1936 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She departed this life on June 21, 2003 at 12:44 p.m. in Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her education at St. Frances Academy in Baltimore City and went on to complete the practical nurse courses at Baltimore City Hospital where she then became a Licensed Practical Nurse. Tremayne later matriculated at Coppin State College where she received a B.S. degree in psychology. To know Tremayne was to love her, because of her sense of humor and her love for people. She truly had a heart of gold and would do anything to help her fellow man. Tremayne accepted Christ as her Lord and Saviour at an early age. Later in life she was baptized again in the Pacific Ocean in Kailua, Hawaii on April 10, 1977. She became a member of the Church of Christ at that time and remained a member in Baltimore until her death. Tremayne made numerous friends from every walk of life wherever she went, and she will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and loved her family. Tremayne leaves to mourn: a devoted sister, Patricia A. McDaniel of Owings Mills, Maryland; a brother and sister-in-law, Otig G. Cox, Jr. and Wanda Cox of Washington DC. She also leaves to mourn a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles as well as many cousins and friends. Tremayne is also survived by a very special friend, Mr. Ernest Rivers.
