

Trent Coleman

February 10, 1962 - December 30, 2007

Trent Coleman, son of the late Charles and Joyce Coleman, was born on February 10, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 30, 2007. Trent received his education at Lake Clifton High School in Baltimore. He began his professional career at Pickersgill Nursing Home, followed by many years at Stella Maris. To further his career, he became a full-time employee of the Baltimore City Department of Juvenile Justice, where he remained until his untimely death. Trent was always the life of the party, cracking jokes all the time; no one was safe from his sense of humor. In his spare time, he enjoyed reading a diversity of books and listening to his favorite recording artist, Sam Cooke. Trent made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: one daughter, Candice Coleman; granddaughter, Chastidy Coleman; two brothers, Reginald Medley and Angelo Coleman; two sisters, Angela Coleman and Lisa Coleman; five aunts, five uncles; brother-in-law, Wade Summers; godbrother, Maurice McMillian; son-in-law, Tony Hill; five nieces, two nephews, four great-nephews, one great-niece, two godnieces, one godnephew, a host of family and friends.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ May I send my condolences to you all. In the past 4 months your circle of life was broken with Trent. It is wonderful to know that one day no one will ever die at all. Our creator care and is there in all your tribulation. I hope these few words will serve as a source of comfort.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##
