

Trenton Owen Thorne

June 3, 1969 - August 2, 2006

TRENTON OWEN THORNE (a.k.a. Big Daddy Boo Boo), son of Samuel and Lillie Bell Thorne, was born on June 3, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 2, 2006 after a short illness. Trenton received his education at Forest Park High School in Baltimore. Throughout his young adult life, he held a variety of jobs, including truck driving which he delivered produce for Baltimore City Public Schools and The White House. He married the lovely Robin Worrell (a.k.a. Brown Sugar) in 2000. His most famous poetic quotes were "Twenty-nine and looking fine, now you're thirty-nine and all mine!" In 2003, Trent fulfilled a life long dream by obtaining his CDL license. He was so excited about his accomplishment, he rushed to his parents' home to share his certification, only to find his sister Teresa would be the first one to verify his certification documentation! Trent accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior in September 2003. He attended Mount Pleasant Church and Ministries. He became excited about the power of the Holy Spirit and began transitioning his lifestyle for a brighter future. He was full of joy and laughter. He was a comedian and always wore a smile as deep as the sea! When asked; "How are you doing?" Trent would always respond "I'm maintaining, I'm praising and worshipping the Lord!" He was well loved by his family and special friends. He was well-groomed. Inspired by his sisters' fashions, he would always ask them "How do I look? Don't I look good?" He never gave his sisters the opportunity to respond first. Daddy and Mama were his idols. Daddy would always tell Trent to do the right thing, while Mama would tell

Trent to do well because she wasn't placed on earth to stay. "You don't know when I'm going to leave this world," said Mama. Trent's reply was "Oh no! You're not going to leave me!" Trent's charm sparked many professional and friendly relationships as he traveled to various cities. He had a conversation for the old and young, and the animals too! He will truly be missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Robin Worrell-Thorne; son, Trenton Owen Thorne, Jr.; two stepsons, Anthony Ray Patterson and Jamal Owen Rowlett; parents, Samuel and Lillie Bell Thorne; two godchildren, Blake and Blair Hall; three sisters, Sheila Thorne, Teresa Hall and Charlotte Thorne; three sisters-in-law, Alethea Iler, Vanessa Thornton and Wanda Worrell; four brothers-in-law, Dwight Iler, Harold Thornton, Tyrone Hall and Barry Worrell; mother-in-law, Lucille Worrell; father-in-law, James Worrell; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and special friends.

“ Well Baby, It's me, just sitting here trying to imagine life on this earth without you. It hurts so so bad, but I still know that The God we serve makes no mistakes. What an angel that appeared on the day you were called. I know The Lord will sustain me. I also know that I can count it a blessing that you are watching over me with perfect assistants. Now you rest honey and I will look forward to the day we meet again. In the Spirit, Your Wife##imported-begin##robin worrell-thorne##imported-end##

“ Trent (Dad) our time was definitely too short but you taught me a lifetime of lessons and have given me so much of your time unselfishly. I will continue to honor you for that. I would never have imagined life without you but as you always would say, take good care of your mother and don't let nothing happen to her. I will honor your request! Mom, I Love You and I know it seems difficult for us right now but we will get through it together. Love, Tony##imported-begin##Anthony Patterson##imported-end##

Happy Memorial Day Trenton, I was just telling the wonderful Doctor that I work with how special you were to the world! She was in tears and so was I.

Thank you Dr. Malloy for your concern for my Spiritual Well Being!

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Thankgiving 2008- Hi Sweetie, it's me again. God will never leave me or forsake me. It's been two years and I am trying to move on. Not an easy thing to do but I know it's time. Thanksgiving was ok but these are the times when I reflect and miss you all over again. I'm still holding on and can say with authority to God be the Glory for what He has done. Until we meet in Glory! Robin###imported-begin###robin worrell- thorne###imported-end##
