“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences, though a mere stranger. I too am approaching another year since I lost my loved one and though the pain is still there, I take much comfort in offering assistance by means of the scriptures to families like yours. Please know that Almighty God's intention was not for us to suffer death, yet he will do away with this enemy (Rev. 21:3, 4). May your family take comfort in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences for the loss of your son, brother and friend. Mr. Campbell seemed like the child every parent wished for and his picture alone speaks volumes. Though a stranger to your family, I know what losing a loved one is like and my prayers are with you at this time. Our loving Heavenly Father knows what you are going through and will go through as time goes on. He is the God of comfort and we can find this comfort through His word, the bible. One in particular I love sharing is found at Isaiah 26:19. It says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the duts!..." As you ponder over that for a moment, remember, Almighty God caused His son to live again. Here, he promises to do the same for us very soon. Afterwards, Isaiah 25:8 says; "He will actually swallow up death forever..." Please be comforted by these scriptures and compare them to your copy of the bible to see these truths firsthand. Take care.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. My family finds much comfort from the Bible in our lives, but especially during times of extreme grief. One such comforting promise is found at Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." What a loving promise from God! May you find much strength in this promise until you see it take place in the paradise that is soon to come on earth.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Trevis Campbell, I want to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a person in death is unnatural because Jehovah God did not make us to die. He promises to give us comfort in our time of need because at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it states that he is the God of all comfort. Another way he comforts us is by the hope laid out in the scriptures. Please read John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:10,11. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
