

Tridonna N. Parks

October 8, 1966 - July 25, 2015

TRIDONNA NAYSHELIA PARKS was born on October 8, 1966, the daughter of Ignatius Parks and Linda Dale Stewart. God sent his angels to escort Tridonna into Heaven on Saturday, July 25, 2015.

As a student at Saint Patrick Catholic School and Baltimore City High School, where she was among the first group of woman accepted in the “A” course, Tridonna also attended Rets Electronic and Technology School.

Tridonna loved her two children, Jovan and Quandria (dria), her family and friends. She accepted Jesus Christ at a young age. Tridonna was a very good listener and had no problems sharing what was right or wrong no matter who or what. When someone would say to Tridonna “ I Love You” she would always say” I Love you more”!.

Tridonna was a very friendly person. She loved family gatherings. She also loved fashion and dress. Tridonna suffered from Multiple Sclerosis (MS), which resulted in her becoming blind. She amazed people around her with the gift of being able to detect who, what and where in her surroundings. She recognized her needs to depend on God and he empowered her with special sensitivity to her environment and strengthened her throughout her illness. God also gave her peace.

Tridonna loved Jesus and the Word of the God. Those of us who are saved will see her again!. During her last days Tridonna was very sick. She made her peace with Jesus and was ready to make her transition from earth to Heaven. She would mention her desire to move on to those who were close to her. She said, " I will be able to see and walk again".

Left behind to cherish Tridonn's loving memories are her son, Jovan Parks; daughter, Quandria Butler (Dria); father, Ignatius Parks (nay); mother , Linda Dale Stewart; sisters, Tracey Bradley, Nikki Cade and Wanda Tates; brother Corey Parks; daughter in law Michelle Parks; grandchildren, Calvin Parks and Aree Alexander; uncles' aunts; nieces; nephews; cousins; god children and a host of friends she met along life's journey.
