“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Trinita. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.,##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn't it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the death of your dear one, Mrs. King. Death is a most sorrowful time for the family and friends, but Jehovah God has something wonderful in store for mankind. He never forgets those who have died, and he alone has the power to restore the life force back to them. He promises to do so in the near future by means of the ressurection. The bible speaks about this in many verses. Acts 24:15 says there will be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Please keep this hope alive in your heart of one day being reunited with your loved one, as we awaut that glorious day of the ressurection.###imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends: I did not know Trinita, but I wanted to offer my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all—especially during times of sorrow. We are reminded at Rev. 21, 4 that says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” May all of you find comfort in this.##imported-begin##M. Rasaki##imported-end##

“ Heartfelt sympathy and prayers to the King-Vaughan and Young family. I was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Trinita. May each of you be comforted by our Father God who is able to heal the pain that you are experiencing. The Psalmist David reminds us that "Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning.." Although I could not be there in person, my heart is with you. Sincerely, Rev. “ Dear Fan, and to the Vaughn and King families. In the words of our heavenly Father, "The dead in Christ shall arise first and we who are left shall be caught up to meet Him in the air and so shall we ever be with the Lord." Trinita is there now, and with peace and joy, she is waiting for you. I also believe she is praying for all of you. The scriptures state, "We shall be like Him when we see Him for we shall see Him as He is." He is now seated at the right hand of God the Father AND He is praying for us. So Trinita is like Him, so she also is praying for you.##imported-begin##Janice East Grant##imported-end##

“ Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan, I want to express my sincerest sympathy to you and your family. I can remember coming into the Prince of Peace on many days and one of the first people that I would see was Trinita. I can never remember a time that Trinita did not have a smile on her face and joy in her heart. Even through sickness her spirit and that beautiful smile of hers never changed. I have so many fond memories of her that will always hold dear to my heart. Trinita was a beautiful spirit and will truly be missed. I know your pain is great now but you can always take refuge in God's love for he will see you through. Please know that Trinita touched so many in such a special way and her spirit will always live on. God Bless You, Michelle##imported-begin##Michelle Harrison##imported-end##

“ To the Vaughan-King Family. Trina & I became fast friends at school. We were running mates during our Dunbar days. I was a proud bridesmaid in her wedding. I was more than her friend, we were sisters. She was a part of our family. My mother always called her "her other daughter". I also was made to feel like a part of her family. How could you not with Trinita's contagious spirit. I will truly miss her. Her smile and laugh will be with me and my family forever. GOD bless her family. I know her spirit will never die. She has made a positive impact on many lives. She was a Prince of Peace. Love Always, Linda Love Green & The Love Family##imported-begin##Linda Love Green & The Entire Love Family##imported-end##
