

Tristan T. Davis

July 5, 2016 - July 5, 2016

Tristan Tyrone Davis entered and departed this life on July 5, 2016. He is survived by his mother, Tiffany Harris and father Tyrone Davis; his grandmothers Kathy Harris and Lorraine Tatum Davis; his aunt Jasmine and Jessica; great aunts and uncles; and an entire host of cousins. All who loved him dearly.

Unlike an ordinary obituary, he had no life events to announce; no places he sojourned; no feats he achieved. However, he was greatly loved more than he would ever get to know. So, we look not at what he accomplished; but, at the dreams we had for him.

One think that I am certain of is that he knew he was loved. Even a unborn child has the capability to feel love; and he was loved immensely. So I look to the future, where I can only imagine when that day comes when Christ steps out in space to gather all His children. Then we will once again cry tears; but they will no longer be tears of pain; they will no longer be tears of sorrow; they will no longer be tears of heartache. On that great day of rejoicing, we will stream tears of joy. We will shout Tristan, Tristan, how much we have missed you. We will embrace him, knowing we will never, ever have to part again.

“ No words can describe the pain of losing a child. As parents, that is the last thing we expect to have to deal with. I pray that you all ponder over the good feelings you have experienced during the pregnancy. May comfort sustain your heart during prayer. Moreover, God promises that those who pray will have their thoughts and feelings soothed by "the peace of God that surpasses all understanding." (Philippians 4, 6, 7). May deepest sympathy!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
