

Trone Headspeth

July 23, 1991 - September 9, 2006

Trone Durrell Headspeth, son of Sylvia Hill and Antrone Headspeth, was born July 23, 1991 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on September 9, 2006. Trone, affectionately known as Twone or Short, was receiving his education in Baltimore City Public Schools, and was currently enrolled in Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School. Trone had many dreams and had already begun to set several goals for success. One of his first aspirations, due to a late start, was to be placed in his proper grade in high school. Just prior to his departure Trone received notice that his new test scores placed him in his correct year. This first achievement made Trone proud and looking forward to returning to school as a sophomore the following week. Another goal, and surely his greatest desire, was to play football throughout high school, college and then professionally. Though, he was told he needed to put on some weight to play, he gladly and ambitiously set out to do so. Despite the fact that he was only a teenager, Trone was level headed beyond his years. This unique quality made him the “go-to-kid,” which led many to ask either for his help or point-of-view, even before adults or those much older. In addition to these qualities, Trone had a special sense of compassion for his family, which was clearly apparent as he took it upon himself to assist his sister Cierra and others in raising his younger siblings. Those who knew Trone can also attest to his proud new role, which was that of an uncle to nephew Montrell, who held a special place in his heart. Although in this life for a short time, Trone was greatly loved and cherished, a young man blessed with a massive amount of character and an even bigger heart to match it. Trone leaves to mourn: his sister/caregiver, Cierra T. Stokes; mother, Sylvia A. Hill; father, Antrone Headspeth Sr.; brother, Antrone Headspeth Jr.; sisters, Sylvia Hill, Brenda Headspeth and Taneakea Harris; grandparents, Elsie Short, Brenda Jordan and William Fortune; niece, Peachu Harris; nephew, Montrell Massey; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends

“ To the family, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ DEAR FAMILY, MAY YOU FIND COMFORT FROM GOD'S WORD THE BIBLE DURING THIS TIME. AT (LUKE 7:11-17) JESUS RAISED TO LIFE A YOUNG MAN, THE ONLY CHILD OF A WOMAN. AND AT (ACTS 20:7-12) THE APOSTLE PAUL RESURRECTED A YOUNG MAN WHO HAD DIED. THE BIBLE HAS MANY MORE EXAMPLES TO SHOW THAT THE DEAD CAN LIVE AGAIN. YES, GOD HAS A YEARNING TO UNDUE ALL THAT DEATH HAS CAUSED. (JOB 14:14,15) MAY YOU HAVE CONFIDENCE IN ALL THAT GOD PROMISES.##imported-begin##MICHELLE##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Headspeth's ! May the God of all comfort be with the family and friends of Trone. Losing a dear loved one in death leaves a huge spot open to hurts and pain. You can find so much comfort in the bible, 2Cor. 1:3-4. Trone was a young person just 16 years old, so much to do in life and with his family and friends. The bible say at Ecc. 12:1 that youth is the grandest time to praise our heavenly father and enjoy life to the full. Trone had started just that with his many desires. Our young people are the future and hope. May all the wonderful things shared with Trone stay close to your hearts. I send my condolences.
