

Trophena R. Young Johnson

January 4, 1930 - July 19, 2003

Mother Trophena R. Young Johnson was born on January 4, 1930 and was called home to glory on July 19, 2003. Trophena, also affectionately called Pheenie, was born to the late Elder Abraham and Mother Louise Young. She was born, raised and educated in Baltimore, Maryland. She was saved as a young adult and was determined to hold out for Christ until the end. She was the mother of Mt. Moriah Church of God in Christ, which was founded by Elder Abraham Young and is presently pastored by Elder Thomas Langston. She was the niece of the late Bishop Theodore Young. She held many offices in the church. She was a member and secretary of the Gospel Chorus, a teacher of the Adult Sunday School Class, member of the State Nurses Union, President of the Pastor's Aide, President of the Home Foreign Mission, Assistant State President of the Greater Maryland First Jurisdiction. She was also an Evangelist Missionary. She was faithful to God and Mt. Moriah Church of God in Christ all her life. Her personal profession was a daycare mother. She acted as mother of many children who loved her. Some knew her as the woman who prayed all day. She shared the gospel to all that came to her home, always lifting up sons and prayers. Ever rejoicing in the goodness of the Lord, she lived and died in Christ. She was married to the late Morris Johnson Sr. She leaves to cherish her memory: a brother, James Young; a sister, Queenie Young; a sister-in-law, Gretta Young; two sons, Morris Johnson Jr. and Sean Johnson; two daughters-in-law, Judy Johnson and LaWanda Johnson; three daughters, Laurie Roberts, Renee Starks, and Miriam Mackey; sixteen grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and saints.
