

Troy Douglas

April 27, 2005 - February 19, 2014

TROY DOUGLAS was born on April 27, 2005 in Baltimore, MD at Johns Hopkins Hospital. God called Troy home and granted him his angel wings on Wednesday, February 19, 2014. He was the beloved son of Troy Douglas and Shanika Brown.

An inspiration from birth, Troy was a bundle of joy to family and friends. At such a young age, he left a remarkable footprint of life. He was the epitome of a happy baby. His sweet and loving demeanor won the trust and hearts of many.

Troy attended William Paca Elementary School from grade Pre-K to the third grade. He was a happy, motivated third grader who was eager to learn. His favorite subject was math. He loved playing sports, especially basketball. On any given day, he could be found playing on the playground. Playing video games and hanging with cousins and friends was another of his favorite pastimes. His smile and big eyes always left an everlasting imprint on your heart and mind. With Troy there was always a spark of hope and joy. You could always count on him to keep everyone amused, there was never a dull moment, and he was the life of the household.

We know that you are our guardian angel watching down from heaven. Your spirit will help heal our hearts and minds. The memories that we share will leave a mark on our lives for eternity. With Troy's passing, we remind others that his life is one to be celebrated.

Troy leaves to cherish loving memories: his parents, Troy Douglas and Shanika Brown; brother, Ty'juan Brown; sisters, Nakiya and Tori Douglas; three half-brothers, Cameron, Caleb and Stoney; half-sister, Calin; paternal grandparents, William Johnson and Verilyn Douglas; paternal great-grandparents, David Love and Joanne Love; maternal grandparents, Ervin Austin and Deborah Brown; maternal great-grandparents, Willie Frank Brown and Willie Mary Brown; uncles, Terry Douglas, Ranard Bradley and Justin Ball; aunts, Latoya Douglas and Brittney Ball; stepmother, Jakita Washington; stepfather, Stoney Davis; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins (special cousins, Ty'jaih and Ty'shera) and friends.

This message expresses the love I share with my nephew. I love him as if he were my own child, and I couldn't think of any other name to call him but The Beautiful One; which I think fits him perfectly.

Love You,
Aunt Sharon

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ To the Family of Troy Douglas, you have my deepest sympathy. Death is called a sting because of the pain and heartache that it causes those who lose their loved one. This is not how Almighty God intended things to be. We can certainly look forward to a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3, 4). What a joyous time that will be. May you find comfort in your memories shared with Troy and may you also find comfort from friends, family and God's Word.

God bless you family. We may never understand why this happened, and the way it happened. But God wanted Troy to fill his garden of angels. Troy's smile said so much about him. I believe he would have been a public figure, or somebody that loved people. Thanks God for the time you had with Troy, and that you will join him in heaven one day. God bless you all. Love, Karen

“ We lift you up unto the Lord In this time of grief,
We pray the Lord will be to you The comfort that you need
And when you have no answers To all the questions 'why',
Know that God is in control and is there by your side
He understands the way you feel and knows the loss you face,
So rest in His eternal love, for there, you'll find His grace.

Time and unforeseen occurrence befall us all Eccl. 9:11. We never know when something tragic will happen but whatever it might be Jehovah promises that he will make it right again. We will see our love ones again John 5:28,29 because he yearns to resurrect them back here to the earth Job 14:13-15; and then they will have a chance to never die at all again Rev 21:3.4. We are so sorry for your lost. My condolences to you Ms. Mary Brown and your Family.
