

Troy M. Gaigler

February 26, 1991 - May 8, 2025

Troy Marcus Gaigler was born February 26, 1991 at 6:35 a.m. and departed May 6, 2025 at 1:35 a.m.

He was a curious child, which often led him down a mischievous path. Nevertheless, we believe he knew GOD, evidenced by his public baptism at the New Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Most of our family members remember him sitting on his grandmother Gladys' lap. Grandma Gladys preceded him in death and this left a void that no one could fill.

Troy was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System where he graduated from Harbor City on June 5, 2010.

Troy had an active childhood. He played lacrosse, football, and earned medals as a decorated swimmer. Troy a.k.a. "Hector" enjoyed music and could often be found listening to his favorite artists: Boosie & Young Jeezy. He was known to rock classic sneakers that complimented his unique style.

As time went on, he met Terea Parham, the love of his life. Terea was the first person Troy saw Monday, May 5, 2025, and the last person he saw Tuesday, May 6, 2025. There was no doubt in anyone's mind that they were made for each other, as evidenced by the love they showed to one another.

Troy leaves to mourn his loss: his mother, Camille A. Holloway; father, Michael Gaigler; brother, Eugene W. Young (TyQuetta); nephew, Eugene Jaden (Man Man); nieces, Kahla, Kelis, and Morgan; aunts, Gwendolyn, Cindy, Clara, and Karen; uncle, Charles; cousins, Kiera, Wesley, and Glen; along with a host of family and friends.

“ Words cannot describe how I feel about Troy. I watched him grow into a kind and caring man. He was always so helpful to me and my family. When my son's car window was smashed, he jumped into action, caught the culprits and took them to their parents for their punishment. My son was so grateful for his involvement. Troy was about righting wrongs. My heart goes out to his family. I love you Troy!
