

Troy Larnell Wilson

August 28, 1990 - July 7, 2008

Troy Larnel Wilson suddenly departed this earth on Tuesday, July 29, 2008. He was born on August 28, 1990 to Sharon S.Lesesane and Troy L.Wilson, Sr. Troy attended Baltimore City Public Schools and demonstrated his ability to be the best when he entered a 3rd grade science fair contest, hosted by Morgan State University, and won. He showed his creative intelligence again at the 6th grade, when he entered the citywide science fair and won yet again. T.J., as he was affectionately known by his family, also excelled in mathematics. Troy loved the water, skating, and reading road maps. He learned to read maps at an early age because he wanted to travel the world. He was a charming young man who incited one in with his warm smile and gentle friendly attitude. Troy's artistic and creative ways, often lead him to think outside the box and to some of his stubborn ways, but he always found the time to show his love for his grandmother with a sincere kiss as he left her home. He did what he felt was necessary to take care of his friends and family and paid the ultimate price. But in doing so it could be said that he personified the statement. "What greater love hath a man, than to lay down his life for a friend." Troy leaves behind his loving mother, Sharon S.Lessane, father Troy L.Wilson, Sr., sister, Shyrelle Wilson, brother Terrence Mitchell, devoted grandmother, Deanna Wilson, great-grandparents, Hon & Christine Paylor, as well as a host of uncles & aunts, great uncles and aunts, cousins and friends.

“ To the family of Troy, I am truly sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is truly heartbreaking, and so hard to come to terms with; especially when one is so young as your Troy was. It seems so unfair that these things happen to a family in the first place. Is this what God purposed for humans? Not according to the bible. Jehovah gave people a wonderful start by preparing a beautiful home for Adam and Eve, and giving them the hope of everlasting life. Sadly, they didnot appreciate God"s love and rebeeled against him. He told them that because of their disobedience they would positively die, and unfortunately they passed this legacy of sin and death on to all of us, their offspring. Romans 6:23 says that all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God. Out of his great love Jehovah made the way out for us through his son Jesus Christ. 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Soon the Lord"s prayer will come to past which says, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth; just as it is in heaven." We know that heaven is a peaceful placem because it is God"s home; so when his will is done on earth then earth will also be peaceful with no more pain, no more crying, and no more dying. As 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. We can put our trust in God"s word too, because he never fails to fullfill his promises. Isaiah 55,11. One day if we are obedient and faithful to God we will see our dead loved ones open their eyes again. I would like to share God"s purpose with you, so please contac me on my e-mail. Please be comforted.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
