

Troy M. Pringle

April 29, 1969 - September 23, 2001

Troy Montrel Pringle was born on April 29, 1969, the child of Fannie Grant Pringle Rose and Anthony John Pringle. He attended St. Rita's Parochial School through fifth grade. He then attended Parkville Middle School through eighth grade and went to high school at Redan High School in Stone Mountain, Georgia where he graduated in 1987. He then attended Essex Community College in Baltimore, Maryland where he graduated in 1991 as a Registered Nurse. He was married to Laura Cathleen Pringle at Our Savior Lutheran Church and had one child, Emily Cheyenne Pringle. He was later divorced. Troy worked as a Registered Nurse since his graduation from Essex Community College. Companies that he was employed by included Franklin Square Hospital, Manor Care, and Johns Hopkins Hospital. Troy was an excellent nurse and loved caring for the elderly due to his close and extraordinary relationship with his grandmother, Lilly Grant. Troy was very generous, kind and giving and loved children, his daughter Emily, his sister, Tara and his cousin, Robert. He loved taking them to the movies and caring for them. Troy loved watching TV and movies at home, singing, riding motorcycles, and working on his computer. He was imaginative, creative and mischief and laughter. He was also a black belt in Aikido. Troy is survived by his six year old daughter, Emily Cheyenne Pringle; his mother, Fannie Grant Pringle Rose; his sister, Tara Jacquelyn Rose; Aunts, Plumb Grant Fulton, Gwendolyn Grant, Lillian Darlene Grant and Joyce Porter; close cousins, Tracy Denise McLeod, Kimp Antonio Redd; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws, old and new friends and co-workers

Dear Dad, I will miss you
