

Tunya Jiles

February 18, 1966 - April 16, 2005

Tunya V. Giles, daughter of Mary Helen Jiles and James Lester Nelson, was born on February 18, 1966 in Montgomery County, Maryland. After a lengthy illness, God called her home on Wednesday, April 13, 2005. Tunya received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools system and enjoyed working as a chef in various restaurants around the City. In November 1985, Tunya gave birth to her eldest daughter, Latunya Porcher. In 1992, she delivered her youngest daughter, Latoya Giles. Proudly bearing her name, her girls were the sunshine in her life. In 2002, her grandson Darius, quickly became the joyful center of attention. Tunya was known for being fun and outgoing, often laughing so hard that she cried. She also didn't hesitate to speak her mind. Wherever she went, she made friends. She was a warm, affectionate woman who loved her family and friends and was always willing to do what she could to help others. She also loved to sing, dance, cook, eat, read and solve murder mysteries. She leaved to celebrate her life: two daughters, Latunya V. Porcher and Latoya V. Giles; one grandson, Darius Porcher; her parents, Mary Jiles and James Nelson; her second father, Eddie Taylor; one sister, Ede Taylor; one brother, Eddie Greene; and a host of other relatives and friends. Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.-1Corinthians 13:4-7 (NKJV)

“ I am sorry to learn of your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. When the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises a "resurrection" into a beautiful "paradise". Yes, Almighty God, will bring back to life our dearly beloved ones. Tunya Jiles will not be forgotten. {Acts 24: 15, Luke 23: 43}##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry that I was not able to attend Tunya’s funeral but I wanted you to know that I will always remember the first time I met her. It was at a picnic at Aunt Molly’s house and she was wearing a flowered dress. Though we had never met before, she greeted me as if we knew each other. I will never forget how beautiful she looked and how outgoing, gracious and welcoming she was to me. I know that this is a very difficult time for you and I pray that you are able to find solace in your faith and the knowledge that she is now at peace in Heaven even while she is still here in your hearts. Please do not hesitate to call or stop by the house if you need anything or if you would just like to get away for a while.##imported-begin##Heidi Bishop##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that death really is our "enemy" and it will be "done away with." Acts 24:15 says that "there is going to be resurrection." May you find much comfort from these loving promises of Almighty God.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
