

Tyquandra S. Anderson

October 25, 1996 - May 16, 2025

Tyquandra, affectionately known as “Quanie,” was known as the life of the party and a true “fashionista,” left us too soon on May 16, 2025 at the age of 28. Born October 25, 1996 in Baltimore, Maryland to Deborah Brown and Russell Anderson, Quanie was a vibrant soul who embraced the world with open arms and a dazzling smile.

Tyquandra was a proud graduate not only of high school, but the studies of cosmetology and Dermatology. Her passion as a stylist showed in everything she did from her head down to her heels.

Quanie left an indelible mark on all who knew her, her smile to her infectious laughter. No matter when or where people were just drawn to her, at family gatherings or strangers at a bar. From a young age Quanie was always outspoken and stood out in a crowd. A true girly-girl, she would sit and play dress-up and have tea parties...things she would later grow to do with her beautiful daughters.

A wonderful mother and “Closet nerd”, Quanie was an avid reader on subjects. In her downtime you could find her doing numerous special projects with her kids, including paint, cutouts or simple things such as pottery.

To know her was to love her, and she will be truly missed.

Tyquandra is preceded in death by her Father Russell Anderson and Mother Deborah Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters; Aamiyah, Aubrielle, and Armani; two sisters Tyesha and Denira; one brother, Antonio; and partner of 15 years, Gerromi Sullivan.
