

Tyrell J. Curtis

October 4, 1985 - June 21, 2025

Tyrell John Curtis, fondly known as “Ty”, was born on October 14, 1985, in Baltimore, Maryland, to parents Betty E. Henderson and John H. Curtis. Tyrell departed this life on June 21, 2025. His presence will be missed, but we will cherish his memory forever.

Tyrell grew up on the East Side of Baltimore City but people became familiar with him wherever he planted his feet. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools but went on to earn his G.E.D. and Welding Certification at Woodstock Job Corps in Woodstock, Maryland where he was well known and liked. He worked as a server at Buffalo Wild Wings and as a landscaper for Affordable Lawn Care which is the family business that he was next in line to own and operate.

Growing up, Tyrell was a “Momma’s Boy” and the apple of his mother’s eye. She spoiled him rotten, and to her, he could do no wrong! Tyrell was his father’s best friend and mirror image! He taught Tyrell work skills and lessons to carry with him along life’s way. He had a strong love for music and enjoyed spending time with the people he loved. He was loved and cared about by his village of family and extended family, and will truly be missed.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Addie Bell and Samuel Henderson, James Curtis, and stepfather, Calvin McNair.

Tyrell is survived by his daughter and only child, Arielle Curtis; his parents, Betty Henderson and John Curtis; grandmother, Mary Jackson; one sister, Yolanda Curtis; three brothers, John Jr., Avon, and Duane Curtis; two nieces and four nephews; Tyrell shared a special bond with Elston Essence and Earl; great niece and nephew, Avah Butler and Malik Howard who he truly adored; stepmother, Karen Curtis; three sisters-in-law, Katrina, Sherri, and Nora; friend/brother, Elston Howard, Jr.; daughter's mother Friend/daughter's, Brittany Outten; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.
