

Tyrone E. Hill Sr.

May 6, 1969 - May 23, 2022

TYRONE EDWARD HILL, SR. was born on May 6, 1969 to the late John Henry Williams and the late Lillie Mae Hill.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked for the D.P.W. City of Baltimore for over 12 years. Many people may know him as “Picture Black.” He loved life to the fullest, a comedian in his own way that kept people laughing but at times he got on our nerves but couldn’t help but to love him. He loved sports like crazy and was a great basketball player. He always loved to play cards, go out to eat, and his “Oldie But Goodies” (music).

“ My heart and prayers extend to all those who have suffered the lost of someone to our enemy Called Death. I've asked myself many times will life ever get better for us, Not knowing that in GODS word the bible found in REVELATIONS, 21:4 God promises to wipe away all death and pain from all mankind. This is GODS promise to all of us and like so many others, I am looking forward to that day. To learn more I invite you to look at this website at www.jw.org Until that time comes, Many thanks to the March family Service for showing their heartfelt condolences to the families, and providing their professional service. Thankyou,
