

Tyrone Jackson

March 25, 1956 - March 27, 2022

TYRONE JACKSON was born on March 25, 1956. Tyrone was introduced to the world by the late John Henry Jackson and Doris Mae Brown.

Born and raised in Baltimore City, Tyrone aka “Big Ty” Jackson was loved by this community. He was a neighborhood hero. Tyrone had a heart of gold. He lent a helping hand to any and every one in any way possible. In return for his generosity, Tyrone peacefully exchanged time for eternity on March 27, 2022. Tyrone was educated at St. Francis Xavier Elementary School. He continued his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After high school Tyrone was employed at a book printing company.

Tyrone had such an entrepreneur spirit, business mentality and lots of ambition. He had a passionate interest and love for cars. Tyrone took that passion and ambition and invested in himself which resulted in him opening Priority Auto Empire with his entrepreneurial spirit. Tyrone was a family man with hopes to begin generational wealth. He opened All T's & Cs Beauty Supply for his children.

Tyrone leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Doris; seven children, Tyrone, Tyjuan, Tyshawn, Tyler, Carron, Tyves, Tybria; stepson, Dione; goddaughter, Tahirah; eleven grandchildren, Madison, Tyjuan, Abrielle, Tyleah, Destiny, Dalil, Donnie, Jhalo, Carron Jr., Tyves Jr. and Trinity; two brothers, David and Andrew; four sisters, Joanne, Margaretta, Pauline and Marline; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. Tyrone was preceded in death by father John Jackson, stepson Marcellus, and four-legged best friend "Debo".
