“ To Ryelynn and the Johnson family. I send my heartfelt condolences and prayers for comfort and peace to you all. I didnt have the pleasure to meet Tyrone but from what I'm told, he was a phenomenal person. May your memories sustain you and make you smile when you think of Tyrone. I know there will forever be a void here on earth where he was but never in your hearts. God bless.

“ My family extends deep condolences to the family of Tyrone Johnson. Tyrone has always been a classy guy who valued family and friends. Whenever he was in the DC area on business, he would contact Harrison Kendall Wallace and me. We would talk and laugh for hours about Bruton Heights and what our families and friends were doing. There is peace in knowing that he is heaven bound. I look forward to seeing him again. Blessings to the family. Lloyd & Shirley Saunders. Class of '66

“ To my cousins, you all are in my prayer. When I heard the news about my cousin. It was and still is a shock to me. It hurt me so deeply. I know your heart is heavy. But, keeping your mind on God will help heal your pain. I met Tyrone in 1995 at Colonial Williamsburg. He was a bus driver and saw me walking by. He came into the gift shop where I worked. We start chatting and realize that his mom was my Great Aunt. Since then we call each other cousins. Tyrone was such a genuine person. He always has a bright shiny smile on his face. You could never know what he thought. All I know is that he was when I see him. He is happy and I was happy to see him. Tyrone, thank you for introducing yourself to me. I never got to tell him that I love him. But, we know the love we have for each other through our conversation. So, cousins I want to tell you I love all of you. I will continue to keep you all in my prayer. May God Bless you all. ❤️🙏
your cousin Jamie

“ Tree and family Tyrone the rising of another angel that our heavenly father came to get. A angel that filled so many people hearts with laughter and joy with his sense of humor. Tyrone knew when he saw his saviors light coming for him gracefully. He accepted that peacefully and he was ready to go with him to do some higher work that only Tyrone can do for his lord and saviors. Tyrone was a husband a father and a wonderful friend that filled so many heart on his journey through life. Tyrone had the biggest heart when it came to his family and friends. He would always have a kind word or a poem for you that would melt your heart when you heard him speak the word of his lord and saviors. God will reward him for his good work down here when he get there with his arms open wide for Tyrone. We love you Tyrone from the Johnson family Sandy and Ernest Johnson Rest in peace my brother

“ When I came to Virginia, I had no immediately family anywhere in Virginia. I met my Spiritual Mom (Selda) while working with her at Walmart. It was thru her that I met this devoted, spiritual, humble, hardworking man who loved the outdoor. Most of all I met someone who I looked up to be a father figure in my life. Tyrone (Dad) who welcomed me in his home and treated me like a son. I will never forget the compassion and love you demonstrated with both words and action. Heaven really gained a real angel. I hate that I didn't have a chance to say goodbye or how much your kind gestures meant/helped me throughout my life and marriage. I will forever keep you in my heart. Take your rest Champ, you deserve it. Love always, your Spiritual Son, Stacy Bacon
