

Tyrone L. Jones

September 5, 1965 - March 31, 2023

Tyrone Lamont Jones. son of Gregory Powell, Sr. and late Regina Jones. was Born on September 5, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. He sadly departed our lives on March 31, 2023 due to a lengthy illness.

Tyrone aka "Big Ty" ... "First Born!" received his education through the Baltimore City School System.

Tyrone loved his family ... especially his kids. He loved to do things with his family. Tyrone was a jack of all trades. If you needed a meal cooked or had a taste for grilled food he was the man for the job. If you needed an ice cold snowball or just a goo old car wash, he was the man for the job. If you need security , he was the man for the job. If you needed help moving or something fixed, he was the man for the job. Hey if you needed a house built, Tyrone was the man for the job.

He loved hanging at his old stomping grounds out in Cherry Hill, where he grew up and was loved by so many. He loved going fishing with his big cousin "Keebie.":He loved spending time with his aunt Necee who affectionately called him "Roney." They had a very special bond and could do no wrong in her eyes. Tyrone took his big brother "First born" role very serious and loved trying to boss his little sisters, "Sam and Trease around like he was their father. You could always catch Ty dressed from head to toe with a "slick" pair of sneakers and a matching hat. Tyrone has a heart of gold and will be missed by many.
