

Tyrone Junior Medlin "Rock"

April 30, 1964 - March 17, 2012

Tyrone "Rock" Medlin, son of Dorothy Medlin Young and Joseph Harris, was born on April 30, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. Rock as he was fondly called, departed this life on March 17, 2012 after a long time illness.

Rock received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System. He was a laid back, easy going person and worked in home improvement. He was a loving person and was always ready to assist his loved ones. He was an easy person to get along with and loved his family. He also held a special place in his heart for his deceased grandmother Alice Medlin and nephew Joshua Harris.

Rock leaves to mourn, his mother Dorothy Young, his father Joseph Harris; his stepfather Bernard Young; and his sisters Zina Randolph and Nia Waynes. He also leaves to mourn, two brothers-in-law; Carlton Randolph and Maurice Wayne; his niece Aminah Mark, Shaneika Hanerson and Makayla Childs; two nephews-in-law; Zayo Mark and James Baker; his longtime companion Pauline Wallace and adoptive son Lawrence Wallace; seven great-nieces and great-nephews; aunts; uncles; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences to the family. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Rev 21:3,4 where Almighty God promises that he will remove death. I hope this will strengthen and encourage you during your time of bereavement.

“ Dear Family. I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear Tyrone "Rock". The Bible foretells a time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:4). When our loved ones die, we mourn. Jesus told his disciples "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest." He was at rest in death, as though in a deep sleep. (John 11:11-14) Jehovah God created us with the desire to live forever. We die is because of Adam's sinful condition as well as death was passed on to all of his descendants. (Rom 5:12) That sin is like a terrible inherited disease from which no one can escape. Its consequence, death, is a curse. Death is an enemy, not a friend. (1Cor 15:26) How grateful we can be that Jehovah God provided the ransom to rescue us from this dreadful enemy through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ! Read these scriptures anytime you think of Tyrone "Rock"; may they console you, because as long as you stay close to God and serve him wholeheartedly, you will see Tyrone "Rock" in the Earthly Paradise! (Psalm 37:29; Rev 21:3,4).
