“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Smith's ! I would like to send my condolence to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. We are truly living in the last days, 2 Tim. 3:1-5, with so many things happening every second of a day. We can look forward to better times in the near future as our creator has promise to make all things NEW, Rev.21:3-5, Ps 145:16. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
