

Tyrone Stokes

January 20, 1958 - September 17, 2004

Tyrone Stokes, son of Michael Bookman and Lorraine Stokes, was born on January 20, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Fairmount Hill High School. Upon completing his education he became a full-time employee of Church Home Hospital for fifteen years and also Good Samaritan Hospital. He was most recently employed with future Care Canton Harbor until he became ill. Tyrone was known to his family and friends as "Cutty." He loved his music, reading and sports. He had a very close relationship with his family. His mother was not just mom; she was his best friend. He had an unconditional love for his nieces and nephews. His brother, Gregory was either right by his side or not too far away. Tyrone and his sister always reminisced about their childhood and his nephew's football games. Tyrone made numerous friends wherever he went. He was such a humble and kind young man. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Lorraine Stokes; father, Michael Bookman; brother, Gregory Stokes; sister, Chevonne Chase; brother-in-law, Calvin Chase; sister-in-law, Tranica Stokes; two nieces, Dianca and Brittany; three nephews, Jabrill, Da'Shawn and Travis; three aunts, Sarah Broadwater, Shirley Bailey and Lillie Stokes; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance. He also promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family of "Cutty": I am sorry for your great loss; I send the entire family my condolences. But the Bible gives us some encouragement. Isaiah 33:24 speaks of a time when "no resident will say, 'I am sick'". Also, the Bible holds the promise that your loved one will be resurrected. So we must wait on Jehovah God to fulfill these promises and take our tears and pain away.##imported-begin##Kendra & Britt##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
