“ To my sister Jean, nephews and nieces, my prayers are with you during this time. Yes, our hearts are saddened, but know this one thing, you can depend on the strength and the comfort of our Heavenly Father's love. We don't always understand when death comes; but we can be assured on one thing, everything will be alright. I'm still unsure if I'll be able to come; however I'm praying for you all. God Bless. “ To the family, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with death. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I extend my condolences to you for your loss. May you be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection. While on earth, Jesus brought many people back to life including a 12-year old girl. Mark 5: 41-43 shows the great joy her parents felt at having their daughter alive with them again. Jehovah made this resurrection provision for the dead, because 1st John 4,8 says that "God is love." One day that resurrection will extend to millions of those who are now in the grave, because John 5:28,29 tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things will have a resurrection of life." Please be comforted by Jehovah's wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
