

Tyson Richardson

August 21, 2014 - June 5, 2024

TYSON RAYNARD RICHARDSON was born on August 21, 2014, to Doris Demekia Todd and Raymond Bernard Richardson Sr. at Johns Hopkins Children's Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He transitioned this life unexpectedly on Wednesday June 5, 2024, at John Hopkins Children's Hospital.

Tyson was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended Moravia Park Elementary School and was in the 4th grade. Tyson loved school and enjoyed learning and spending time with his teachers and friends.

At a young age, Tyson had many accomplishments and achievements. Tyson worked closely with Angela Tyler and Yisreal to build an adaptive bike. Tyson is featured in a three-part documentary called "Engineering Beyond the Books," highlighting Tyson/Yisreal and how his bike was made. In September 2023, Tyson was featured in the Image Center of Maryland in their back-to-school newsletter modeling his adaptive uniform. Tyson's wish was also granted from the Make-a-wish, The Sunshine Foundation where he wished to visit Pennsylvania Themed Park, The Cartoon Network Hotel. He also benefited from and enjoyed many trips provided by the Casey Cares Foundation.

God also had a plan and purpose for Tyson. Tyson loved God and enjoyed going to Church. He loved learning about the Lord Jesus Christ. Tyson was baptized on April 5, 2024, at Nazarene Temple Apostolic Faith Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Tyson had a very lively and fun personality. Tyson was a prankster. He loved telling jokes and making people laugh. He also had many talents and passions. He had a passion for cooking. He enjoyed cooking with his mom and grandmom and at his school cooking club. Tyson loved playing basketball and enjoyed practicing with Autumn, Katelynn, and Coach KJ. He was also a dad to his pet cat, Ari and his turtle, Bubbles, who he loved and adored. Tyson was a very smooth dancer too. He was very passionate about music and loved to sing rap. He also loved playing video games.

Tyson loved and enjoyed being with his family. He attended many family events. He loved family nights which included watching movies and eating his favorite snacks. He enjoyed eating seafood boils and eating at the Charm City Buffet. He loved being a big brother and loved his sister Autumn and enjoyed making videos with her.

Tyson will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Tyson was preceded in death by three great-grandmothers, Lovie Williams, Dorothy Todd, Pauline I. Richardson, three great-grandfathers, Hosie Lee Todd, Raymond E. Richardson and Arthur O. White, two grandfathers, Hozier Todd and Jessie James Williams Jr. and two uncles, James A. Tinsley Jr. and Demone E. Jackson.

“ On behalf of the whole Richardson Family we send our deepest condolences to you all. Tyson will truly be missed by his schoolmates Terrell and Tyler Carter. Tyler and Terrell has been so impressed with Tyson and his ability to accomplish all things on his own. So impressed that Tyler and Terrell decided to name my youngest son Tyson (4 months old today) after Tyson Richardson. So now I have a Tyson Carter. It's been a pleasure knowing Tyson and he shall live on through his family and friends always!!

God Bless you all with the strength you'll need to get through this tough time 🙏❤️

Love Always , Kenya Johnson
