

Ulysses Gamble

November 24, 1936 - October 24, 2005

ULYSSES GAMBLE, the son of the late B.F. and Sylvester Gamble, was born on November 24, 1936. He departed this life on October 24, 2005 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Greenville, South Carolina. Upon completion of his education he moved to Baltimore where he fell in love and married the late Alease Fowlkes. He worked in the Baltimore construction industry for more than twenty-five years. Ulysses, fondly known as Tommy, loved to cook. He shared his love for cooking with everyone. Tommy was a true country gentleman, who loved gardening, fishing and picking berries. He also loved wrestling. Family meant everything to him. He would call his niece Margaret Ann in South Carolina every week to see how the family was doing. He was a devoted uncle and friend. Uncle Tommy, you will be truly missed. He leaves to mourn his passing: his two sisters, Early Mae Young and Mary Francis Gambrell from Baltimore and two brothers, Clyde and Fred Gamble from Greenville, South Carolina; a special brother-in-law, James Pinder; a devoted niece, Kareema Dent; a devoted cousin, Ansel Hallums; three aunts, one uncle, special nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

“ My condolences to the family, friends & colleagues of Mr. Gamble. Comfort is needed in times of mourning, & the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 provides such, where it reads in part "...death will be no more." This promise made by God can give you strength, and also a hope for your future, as well as that of your loved ones.##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my sincere sympathy to your family on the death of your loved one. Death is such a hard thing to bear, but my family has been comforted by the sure hope of the ressurection. God says at Isaiah 25,8 that soon he will swallow up death forever, and he will wipe the tears from off all faces. When that promise becomes a reality all mankind will rejoice as we welcome our loved ones back from the grave. May Jehovah God comfort your family with his love.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
