

Undean D. Thorne

December 4, 1931 - January 2, 2018

Undean Delores Thorne (McDonald) was born on December 4, 1931 to the late Mable (Gaines) McDonald and Harry McDonald. She grew up in Baltimore, Maryland and received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She departed this life on January 2, 2018 after a short illness at her home in Tampa Florida.

She graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1951. While at Douglass, Undean loved working in the school office and had aspirations of becoming a Home Economics Teacher. After graduation she work several different jobs in retail in Men's Clothes and also working at Kramer's Drug Store Pharmacy located on the corner of Carey and Mosher Streets. Her job calling was not fulfilled until she started working as a bank teller, which she did for 25 years.

Undean loved going to the movies at the Royal Theatre, fashion and roller skating at the Coliseum on Monroe Street. Her hobbies bought her to meet her true love, the late John William Thorne whom she met skating at the Coliseum. They were married on August 18, 1954. John was a career decorated member of the United States Air Force, where he was stationed all over the world with Undean by his side. In 1983 he was stationed in Tampa, Florida which became their permanent home.

Undean is survived by her brother Harry McDonald, Sister in Law Marilyn McDonald, Sister in Law Patricia Thorne, one Uncle, Patriarch of the family John Taylor who is 96 yrs. Old; Nieces and Nephews, Keith McDonald (Janet),

Kevin McDonald (the late Deborah), Mark McDonald (Deneen), Michelle McCormick and Michael McCormick; great niece, Alana McDonald; great nephews, Timothy McDonald, Matthew McDonald, Keith McDonald, Jr. and Kevin McDonald, Jr. and a whole host of other relatives and friends.
