

Urias H. Mark

September 28, 1932 - August 23, 2011

URIAS HUGH MARK, son of the late William and Agatha Mark, was born on September 28, 1932 in St Vincent and the Grenadines. He was also known by several names such as Letchie, MarkieBoy, Naco and to his children Grainger.

He migrated to Trinidad and Tobago in the 1960 and subsequently worked at several jobs until he became employed at the country's first television station, Trinidad and Tobago Television (TTT). He worked there as a prop man until he retired in 1994.

Grainger believed in hard work and self sufficiency and planted crops and raised livestock throughout because he loved doing it and to provide food for his family. He also enjoyed playing music and cards. Christmas was his favorite time of year and he worked extremely hard to prepare for the holiday season.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Patricia Lawrence; five sons, Keith George, Elford Lawrence, Lynton Lawrence, Marlon Lawrence and Veryne Lawrence; two daughters, Yvette Lawrence-Hood and Rhonda Lawrence; son-in-law, Haydn Hood and Daimeon Ruiz; daughters-in-law, Sharon George, LaShanda Lawrence, and Shawan Allen; nine grandchildren, Atiya, Ykendi, Nicholas, Jaida, Nyah, Noah, Taylor, Norah and Niam; great-grandchild, Rayniah; close and special friend, Estelle Duncan; sister, Ida

Rodney; brother, Randolph Atley; and several nieces and nephews.

Grainger was a strong man but finally succumbed to a lengthy illness on August 23, 2011. May his soul rest in peace.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of your precious loved one. May Jehovah, the God of Comfort, help to ease your grief and , through prayer, be by your side as you continue on through life. His word, the Bible, gives us hope.

(John 5:28, 29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement.

M. Johnson - August 25, 2011 at 08:32 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
