January 19, 1954 - January 15, 2006

VALARIE EMELDA SWETT-MILLER, daughter of the late Melvin Leroy Swett and Elaine Reeder, was born on January 19, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed her life on Sunday, January 15, 2006 after a brief illness. "Val," as she was affectionately called, received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and was employed at the Days Inn Hotel in downtown Baltimore. Val accepted Christ into her life at an early age. Val was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister and aunt. Her hobbies were cooking, roller skating and bowling. But most of all, she loved being with her grandchildren. She loved planning activities for them and having them spend the night at her house. The love, interest, care and concern that she exhibited to her grandchildren went also to the other little ones that were a part of her extended family. To cherish her memory forever she leaves to mourn: her husband, Sherman Miller; three sons, Ronald, Kenard and Lenard; two mothers-in-law, Mammie Miller and Lillian Lee; three daughters-in-law, Charlene, Nikia and Valdeatha; six grandchildren, Rodney, Kenard Jr., Imani, Lanarah, Laila and Aaliyah; three brothers, Darrell, Reggie and James; three sisters, Michelle, Angela and Latonya; special nephew, Jason; special friend and co-worker, Vanessa and Lila; and a host of other relatives and friends. Val had two other brothers that preceded her in death, Melvin Jr. and Fernanzo (known as Cotton). Val will be missed and fondly remembered.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May your family find comfort from the bible, which lets us know at Rev 21:3,4 that one day God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." IN the near future, according to bible prophecy, Jehovah God will restore life back to our loved ones who have died, and we can be reunited with them. What a wonderful promise from God, and I hope it helps to comfort your family at this time.##imported-begin##R

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on this hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##
