

Valeria Doneise Foster

June 2, 1949 - July 3, 2015

Valeria Doneise Foster, daughter of the late Dora Bell Brown and Milton Edward Brown Sr., was born on June 2, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was led home by grace on July 3, 2015.

She was educated in the Baltimore Public School Systems. She had various jobs such as a night monitor for a homeless shelter, housekeeper, and homemaker. She was a member of River of Life Christian Center in Baltimore Maryland.

Valeria Foster was married to Willis Rogers Foster for over 30 years. Out of their union three children were born. Willis and Rogers Sr. (oldest son) preceded her in death. She was a devoted wife and mother. Valeria and Willis were truly in sync with each other. They had a strong, loving, and fulfilling relationship. The bond that they shared allowed them to walk hand and hand through the storms of life. They overcame many challenges as a couple. Their relationship truly exemplified unconditional love and friendship.

Valeria made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was an extended mother and caretaker of many. She was a very loving, caring, and generous person. Valeria was also known for being candid and outspoken. She enjoyed fill-in word puzzles, playing solitaire card game, fishing, and listening to music. She enjoyed traveling to Virginia to visit her Family. She leaves to cherish her memory: two children; one son Royal and one daughter Valerie; one sister: Urania; three brothers, Darius Vernon, and Milton. 20 grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.
