“ To my sister Valerie, we will miss you. We love you so much, your smile and love for family. We have the memories of our time together, and will keep you in our hearts until we meet again. Tell the family there in heaven with you hello, and that we love them and miss them as well. We will see you again one day, but for now rest my sister with Jesus. We love you.

My beloved sister, I already miss our phone calls, and your funny way of expressing things, but I rejoice in knowing that the enemy didn't win. You recognized his plan and changed dancing partners, and because of that we will be together again at the "Big Ball" laughing together again. RIP I love you. William
