

Valerie D. Davis

January 24, 1954 - March 27, 2016

VALERIE DENISE DAVIS, the youngest of five girls, was the daughter of the late Virginia Taylor and Richard C. Davis. She was born January 24, 1954 in Baltimore, MD and gained her eternal wings Easter Sunday, March 27 2016. At an early age, following the death of her mother, Valerie went to live with her third oldest sister, Pearl Taylor. Valerie received her education through Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Alicia Crossland High School in 1972.

She remained with her sister Pearl through adulthood and gave birth to two children, Lil Man and Kia. Together they raised six children as one big happy family in West Baltimore, except for Pearl's oldest daughter, Sheri, whom everyone believed was Val's sister.

Valerie had several odd jobs throughout her career, but the most accomplished job was the nurturing and caring for family and friends.

She was affectionately called "Aunt Val", the kid's caregiver and the one who gave our children their infamous nicknames. Val's fondest memories were from Lemmon Street, Hayden Court and Barnsley Place, with her kids, nieces and nephews and years later with grandchildren, grandnieces and –nephews respectively. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

Loved ones who preceded her in death are: her son, Dadisi Umeme Sipline (Swahili for inquisitive and came like lightning); sisters, Delores Stevenson, Brenda (Jimmy) Winegan, Pearl Wilson and great nephew, Ma'Ryan Wilson.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Shaunkia Michelle Shaw; grandsons, Quante' Arthur, Ti'Andre Sippline and Kylek Joseph; granddaughter, Khleo Green; great-grandson, Alontae Arthur; sister, Sheila Taylor; brother-in-law, Randolph Wilson; cousin, Claudette Taylor; nieces and nephews, Sherl Commodore, Randria Wilson, Amefika Wilson, Nyiema Wilson and Kiera Wilson, Kim Conway, Norrice Herndon, Deborah Stevenson, Gerald Brooks, Teesha Brooks, Leidaka Smith; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

May Val's legacy remain strong and precious memories be cherished by family and friends.

“ Sending condolences to the family and friends of Ms Valerie Davis. I remember Ms Val from our younger days living on Lemmon Street. She was one of the nicest ladies on the block and was always so kind of us. I remember her for her green thumb and her delicious food. My family mourns the lost of such a wonderful person and she'll be truly missed.

“ You have my deepest sympathies for your loss, the sting of death is most painful. It's saddening we have to lose loved ones all the time, and that's because we've inherited sin (Romans 5:12) but we've received a great gift that gives us a future and a hope (Romans 6:23).

“ To the Davis family, I would like to offer my sincerest condolences on the loss of Ms. Val...I can't recall when I met her but she's been a part of my family ever since. Kia, thank you for sharing your mother with my cousin, Tricy. She had a warm heart and a genuine love for everyone she met. She will be missed dearly! Trish
