

Valerie Lolita Anderson

February 8, 1958 - December 23, 2008

On February 8, 1958, one of God's angels, Valerie Lolita Anderson, was born to the late Clinton Lloyd and Vestilia Ransom in Baltimore, Maryland. She was raised in Mount Winans. Valerie attended Baltimore City Public Schools, where she received her high school diploma in 1976 at Southern Senior High School. During that time, Valerie was employed at David Branch Bowling Alley at the age of seventeen years old. There she met her first love, Jonathan Brown in 1975. Two years later, they both joined hands on February 14, 1978 to become as one. Out of this union a baby girl was born, Brandy Bonita Brown. In later years, while working at 7-Eleven convenience store, she met her second lover, Anthony Anderson; and on July 10, 1993 they were united as one. Valerie was employed by Litton System Inc. (October 1984-July 1991), Service America (several years), and Guardian Transportation (as a manager for seven years), just a few of the many jobs she held. Valerie was also known as "Val" or "Tink". During her earlier years, she enjoyed skating and bowling. As the years went on she loved Bingo, Playing Cards and Slot Machines. Val traveled many miles to Atlantic City and Delaware Park, where she enjoyed spending time with her loved ones. Most of her quality time was spent with her daughter Brandy, her dog Teenie and her cat Kitty, they were also her children. She was preceded in death by her parents, the late Clinton Lloyd and Vestilia Ransom and her loving aunt, Nellie Ransom "Aunt Sissy". She leaves to carry her torch; her husband, Anthony Anderson of Baltimore, MD. her daughter Brandy Bonita Brown of Baltimore, MD., her pets, Teenie "Doggie"

“ To the family of Ms. Anderson, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Anderson Family, I would like to convey my sincere sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time with "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Please continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" and he will give you the strength to get through. (1Cor1:3-4) C Murphy##imported-begin##C Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Ezekiel 18:32 informs us that Almighty God never takes 'pleasure in the death of someone'. And Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 where we are promised that those who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of receiving a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Pour your heart out to our loving heavenly father in your sorrow, because he hears our cries for comfort, and he will help us to endure all trials, because he cares for you and I so very much. 1st Peter 5:7. Because he cares so much, he took steps to end all sickness and death, and to restore life back to those who have died. The dead will indeed live again, because this is why Christ died for us, so that we might have life and have it in abundance. John 10:10. One day the graves will be emptied of their dead, then the words recorded at Hosea 13:14 will come to pass which says: "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. "Where are your stings, O Death? "Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol? So even death can not keep our loved ones away from us permanently. One day they will wake up in paradise. May the hope of the resurrection be a comfort and strengthening aid to you in the days to come.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
